Small shoulder bags for men have become a must have for every stylish man on the street, being perfect for putting your those essentials like laptop, keys, wallet and phone in, without having tons of space left over to lose it all on, and here at Man Bags, we're totally in love with the new The Entertainer bag from Malcolm Fontier.

Based in Atlanta, Malcolm Fontier is a company dedicated to producing bags that are as at home worn on the weekend with jeans and t-shirt as they are in the week worn over your shoulder on the way to work and back, and The Entertainer bag is a stunning example of that.

Styled out of a soft and durable polyurethane coated canvas in either black or brown this bag just oozes style, and it loses none of it with those little design features, with all the buckles, fastenings and straps having been either custom made to blend in perfectly, and have had hours spent over them to make sure they're an ideal match.

And on top of being stylish, this small mens shoulder bag (it measures 15" x 13") is also incredibly functional too, having been styled with an inner natural linen lining, and featuring a padded main compartment that's perfect for a Macbook Air or just some books, as well as having quick access magazine and boarding pass pockets for all those things you need to hand.

This Malcolm Fontier The Entertainer Bag is available to buy online, with worldwide shipping available, for just $195.00 at Malcolm Fontier.
