

Organic

LIFESTYLES

Fall 2008

...every tun
...should it
...Are you
...putting
...produce
...meat of
...some more
...make sense of
...ore on it,
...Or no buy
...better mix?

Eco-Style & Design

Nicole Bridger

Although Vancouver based designer Nicole Bridger is a relative newcomer to the runway, her sustainable designs seem right at home.

Each piece reflects classic simplicity, but it is her choice of fabric and colour that sets them apart. Nicole employs natural fibres such as wool, organic cotton, bamboo and silk charmeuse, which explains why they flow with the body so well.

Nicole's commitment to sustainability goes beyond the natural fibre fabrics that she has chosen for her line. She also manufactures every piece in Vancouver, supporting the local economy. Sustainability and style...how can you go wrong?

To see her entire collection go to www.nicolebridger.com

Vegan Style and Function

Malcolm Fontier

Malcolm Fontier believes that its a big bad world out there and to experience it you need to get off the couch.

"Venture Boldly" is Malcolm's tagline and the inspiration behind his line of classic but hip accessories including bags and wallets which are both functional and vegan.

"Our designs are ready for whatever's on the roadmap and especially for what's not," says Malcolm. "Just pack it up and go...and make sure to go in style."

For more information on Malcolm Fontier check out his website found at www.malcolmfontier.com

